

Contents

List of Contributors page vi
Preface viii

-
- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 Introduction 1 Serena L. Orr and David W. Dodick 2 Epidemiology of Headache in the Emergency Department 4 Serena L. Orr and David W. Dodick 3 Approach to History Taking and the Physical Examination 15 Suzanne Christie and Garth Dickinson 4 Approach to Investigations 26 Meir H. Scheinfeld and Benjamin W. Friedman 5 Thunderclap Headache in the Emergency Department 43 James Ducharme 6 Other Secondary Headaches in the Emergency Department 50 Michael J. Marmura and Benjamin W. Friedman 7 The Migraine Patient in the Emergency Department 65 Serena L. Orr and Brian H. Rowe 8 The Patient with a Trigeminal Autonomic Cephalalgia in the Emergency Department 80 Anne Ducros 9 Other Primary Headache Disorders That Can Present to the Emergency Department 88 Yasmin Idu Jion and Brian M. Grosberg 10 Medication Overuse Headache in the Emergency Department 99 Chia-Chun Chiang, Todd J. Schwedt, Shuu-Jiun Wang and David W. Dodick 11 Approach to the Pediatric Patient with Headache in the Emergency Department 110 Serena L. Orr and David Sheridan | 12 Approach to Pregnant or Lactating Patients with Headache in the Emergency Department 125 Sylvia Lucas and Esther Rawner 13 Approach to the Elderly Patient with Headache in the Emergency Department 141 Fabio Frediani and Gennaro Bussone 14 Preventing Emergency Department Visits in Primary Headache Patients and Prevention of Bounce-Backs to the Emergency Department 149 Wm. Jephtha Davenport |
|---|--|
-
- Index* 159