

Contents

Working group	vii
Contributors	ix
PaNSTaR (Paediatric and Neonatal Safe Transfer and Retrieval) first edition	xi
STaR (Safe Transfer and Retrieval) first and second editions	xiii
Preface	xv
Acknowledgements	xvii
Contact details and website information	xix
How to use your textbook	xxi
PART 1: Introduction	1
1 Introduction	3
2 Medicine on the move	7
3 Planning the move	9
4 Human factors	13
PART 2: The elements of transfer	23
5 Assessment	25
6 Control	27
7 Communication	29
8 Evaluation	35
9 Preparation and packaging	39
10 Transportation	53
PART 3: Practical considerations	63
11 SCRUMP – the differences between transport and hospital-based care	65
12 Safety and the team	73

PART 4: Clinical considerations	81
13 Clinical considerations – an introduction	83
14 Clinical considerations for neonates and children	87
15 Clinical considerations for adults	107
PART 5: Special considerations	117
16 Support for the family	119
17 Air transfers – an introduction	123
18 Respiratory support and the patient with a difficult airway or tracheostomy	133
19 Patient monitoring	153
20 The infectious or contaminated patient	161
21 Governance, legal and insurance issues	167
22 Documentation	173
PART 6: Appendices	177
A Intensive care levels: classification of ICU patient dependency	179
B Transfer quick reference	181
C Pre-departure checks	183
D Generic forms: referral and transfer	185
E Glossary	207
Index	215