

- 1 Introduction to dermatological diagnosis
- 2 Introduction to dermatological treatment
- 3 Hairy scalp
- 4 Acute erythematous rashes on the face
- 5 Chronic erythematous rashes on the face
- 6 Mouth, lips, tongue & ear
- 7 Acute erythematous rashes on the trunk & limbs
- 8 Chronic erythematous rashes on the trunk & limbs
- 9 Non-erythematous lesions
- 10 Flexures
- 11 Genitalia and perineum
- 12 Lower legs
- 13 Hands and feet
- 14 Nails

General index

List of drugs and associated drug reactions

Classification of topical steroid by potency

Emollient products – how and when to use

Wash products & bath emollients

Summary of types of wound and dressings to use

Debriding agents

Reducing bacterial counts and odour

Absorption of exudate

Wound and ulcer dressings

Index of algorithms

Non-erythematous lesions

Erythematous lesions inside back cover