

Section I: Background and historical context

1: Why ethics matter in psychotherapy, Manuel Trachsel, Jens Gaab, Nikola Biller-Andorno, Serife Tekin, and John Z. Sadler

2: A brief moral history of psychotherapy, Alan Tjeltveit

3: What do psychotherapists need to know about the history of professional ethics?, Carole Sinclair

4: The history and ethics of the therapeutic relationship, Ulrich Koch and Kelso Cratsley

Section II: Concepts and Theories for Psychotherapy Ethics

5: Autonomy as a goal in psychotherapy, Paul Biegler

6: Patient protection and paternalism in psychotherapy, Marco Annoni

7: Empathy, honesty, and integrity in the therapist: a person-centered perspective, Jeffrey H.D. Cornelius-White and Gillian Proctor

8: Fairness, justice, and economical thinking in psychotherapy, Marta Herschkopf and Rebecca Brendel

9: Ethics of care approaches in psychotherapy, Anna Elsner and Vanessa Rampton

10: Legitimate and illegitimate imposition of therapists' values on patients, Susana Lampley and John Z. Sadler

11: Virtue ethics in psychotherapy, Michael Laney and Adam Brenner

12: How do people make moral medical decisions?, Eleanor Gilmore-Szott and Thomas Cunningham

13: Existential philosophy and psychotherapy ethics, Alexander Noyon and Thomas Heidenreich

14: Phenomenological-hermeneutic resources for an ethics of psychotherapeutic care, Giovanni Stanghellini

15: Free will, responsibility, and blame in psychotherapy, Tobias Zürcher

16: Dignity in psychotherapy ethics, Roberto Andorno

Section III: Common Ethical Challenges in Psychotherapy

17: The ethics of informed consent for psychotherapy, Alastair McKean, Manuel Trachsel, and Paul Croarkin

18: Ethics of the therapeutic alliance, shared decision-making, and consensus on therapy goals, Stella Reiter-Theil and Charlotte Wetterauer

19: Evidence, science, and ethics in talk-based healing practices, James Phillips and John Z. Sadler

20: Patient information on evidence and clinical effectiveness of psychotherapy, Charlotte Blease, John M. Kelley, and Manuel Trachsel

21: Ethical dimensions of psychotherapy side effects, Michael Linden

22: Privacy and confidentiality in psychotherapy: conceptual background and ethical considerations in the light of clinical challenges, Anke Maatz, Lena Schneller, and Paul Hoff

23: Dual and multiple relationships in psychotherapy, Kevin S. Doyle

24: Ethics considerations in selecting psychotherapy modalities and formats, John Z. Sadler

25: Therapist self-disclosure, Jeffrey E. Barnett

26: Placebo and nocebo in psychotherapy, Jens Gaab and Manuel Trachsel

27: The business of psychotherapy in private practice, Anna E. Brandon

28: Impact of mental health care funding and reimbursement systems on access to psychotherapy, Joelle Robertson-Preidler, Nikola Biller-Andorno, and Tricia Johnson

29: Psychotherapeutic futility, Cynthia Geppert

30: The moral significance of recovery, Larry Davidson

31: Social media ethics for the professional psychotherapist, Kristi Pikiwicz

32:Relationship between religion, spirituality, and psychotherapy: An ethical perspective, Thomas G. Plante

33:Ethics and expert authority in the patient-psychotherapist relationship, Laura Guidry-Grimes and Jamie Carlin Watson

Section IV: Ethical Issues with Specific Psychotherapy Approaches

34:Ethical issues in cognitive-behavioral therapy, Sahanika Ratnayake and Christopher Poppe

35:Ethical processes in psychoanalysis and psychodynamic psychotherapy, Robert P. Drozek

36:Ethical issues in systemic psychotherapy, Andreas Fryszer and Rainer Schwing

37:Ethical issues in existential-humanistic psychotherapy, Orah T. Krug and Troy Piwowarski

38:Ethical considerations in emotion-focused therapy, Ueli Kramer and Robert Elliott

39:Ethical considerations on mindfulness-based psychotherapeutic interventions, Abigail Levin

40:Psychotherapy integration as an ethical practice, Martin grosse Holtforth, Juan Martin Gómez Penedo, Cosima Locher, Charlotte Blease, and Louis G. Castonguay

Section V: Ethical Challenges of Specific Settings and Populations

41:Identifying and resolving ethical dilemmas in group psychotherapy, Virginia M. Brabender

42:Ethics in couple and family psychotherapy, Marcel Schaer and Célia Steinlin

43:Ethical challenges of specific settings and populations: Psychotherapy with children and adolescents, Ashley R. Castro, Gerald P. Koocher, and Eric Peist

44:Psychotherapy in old age: Ethical issues, Julian C. Hughes and Richard Cheston

45:Ethical considerations of court-ordered outpatient therapy, Josh E. Becker, Audrey Cecil, and Michael C. Gottlieb

46:Ethical issues in the psychotherapy of high risk offenders, Gwen Adshead

47:Beyond the office walls: Ethical challenges of home treatment, and other out-of-office therapies, Ofer Zur and Manuel Trachsel

48:Common ethical issues associated with psychotherapy in rural areas, Alysia Hoover-Thompson, Brandon C. Bogle, and James L. Werth, Jr.

49:Ethical aspects of online psychotherapy, Julia Stoll and Manuel Trachsel

50:The ethics of artificial intelligence in psychotherapy, Tania Manriquez, Nikola Biller-Andorno, and Manuel Trachsel

51:Unique ethical dilemmas in psychotherapy of other psychotherapists: Description, considerations, and ways of coping, Gaby Shefler, Shai Lederman, and Refael Yonatan-Leus

52:Ethics of psychotherapeutic interventions in palliative care, Mathieu Bernard, Sonia Krenz, and Ralf J. Jox

53:Ethical psychotherapeutic management of patients with medically unexplained symptoms: The risk of misdiagnosis and harm, Diane O'Leary and Keith Geraghty

54:Psychotherapy in a multicultural society, Jan Ilhan Kizilhan

55:Conducting psychotherapy through a foreign language interpreter, H. Russell Searight

56:Ethical issues in working with LGBTQ+ clients, Sheila Addison and Whit Ryan

57:Intersectionality and psychotherapy with an eye to clinical and professional ethics, Suryia Nayak

58:Ethics of animal-assisted psychotherapy, Karin Hediger, Herwig Grimm, and Andreas Aigner

59:Ethical issues of mindfulness-based interventions from a public health perspective, Andreas T. Schmidt and Lovro Savic

Section VI: Ethics of psychotherapy education, training, quality assurance, and research

60: Virtue ethics and the multicultural clinic, Jennifer Radden and Jerome Kroll

61: Toward an evidence-based standard of professional competence, Scott D. Miller, Joshua Madsen, and Mark Hubble

62: Ethical importance of psychotherapists' self-care and when it fails, Andrés Consoli, Heidi A. Zetzer, and Himadhari Sharma

63: The metaethics of psychotherapy codes of ethics and conduct, Paul Snelling

64: Professional conduct and handling misconduct in psychotherapy: Ethical practice between boundaries, relationships, and reality, Irina Franke and Anna Richer-Rössler

65: Dealing with moral dilemmas in psychotherapy: The relevance of moral case deliberation, GAM Widdershoven and AM Ruissen

66: Psychotherapy ethics in film, Tobias Eichinger

67: Psychotherapy ethics in 20th-century literature, Anna Magdalena Elsner

68: Ethical issues in psychotherapy research, Violette Corre, Poonima Bhola, and Manuel Trachsel