

Contents

Working group for fourth edition	x
Contributors to fourth edition	xii
Working group for third edition	xiv
Contributors to previous editions	xv
Foreword to fourth edition	xvii
Preface to fourth edition	xviii
Acknowledgements	xix
Contact details and further information	xxi
How to use your textbook	xxii
Abbreviations	xxiii

Part 1 Introduction

1 Introduction	3
2 Saving mothers' lives: lessons from the Confidential Enquiries	5
3 Structured approach to emergencies in the obstetric patient	15
4 Human factors	19

Part 2 Recognition

5 Recognising the seriously sick patient	31
6 Shock	41
7 Sepsis	51
8 Intravenous access and fluid replacement	61
9 Acute cardiac disease in pregnancy	73

Part 3 Resuscitation

10 Airway management and ventilation	87
11 Cardiopulmonary resuscitation in the pregnant patient	103
12 Amniotic fluid embolism	113

13	Venous thromboembolism	121
14	Resuscitation of the neonate at birth	127

Part 4 Trauma

15	Introduction to trauma	147
16	Domestic abuse	153
17	Thoracic emergencies	157
18	Abdominal trauma in pregnancy	165
19	The unconscious patient	171
20	Spine and spinal cord injuries	179
21	Musculoskeletal trauma	185
22	Burns	191

Part 5 Other obstetric medical and surgical emergencies

23	Abdominal emergencies	199
24	Diabetic emergencies	207
25	Neurological emergencies	213
26	Perinatal psychiatric illness	223

Part 6 Obstetric emergencies

27	Pre-eclampsia and eclampsia	231
28	Major obstetric haemorrhage	243
29	Caesarean section	253
30	Abnormally invasive placenta and retained placenta	261
31	Uterine inversion	267
32	Ruptured uterus	271
33	Ventouse and forceps delivery	275
34	Shoulder dystocia	289
35	Umbilical cord prolapse	297
36	Face presentation	301
37	Breech delivery and external cephalic version	305
38	Twin pregnancy	319
39	Complex perineal and anal sphincter trauma	323
40	Symphiotomy and destructive procedures	331

41	Anaesthetic complications in obstetrics	339
42	Triage	355
43	Transfer	361
44	Consent matters	373
	References and further reading	381
	Index	393