

Contributors

Preface

Part I: Symptomatology and Epidemiology

Chapter 1. Historical Aspects of Mood Disorders

Chapter 2. Classifications of Mood Disorders

Chapter 3. The Epidemiology and Burdens of Mood Disorders

Chapter 4. Rating Scales and Structured Diagnostic Interviews for Mood Disorders

Part II: Pathogenesis of Mood Disorders

Chapter 5. Neurochemistry of Mood Disorders

Chapter 6. Psychoneuroendocrinology of Mood Disorders

Chapter 7. Role of the Immune System in Mood Disorders

Chapter 8. Evolutionary Contributions to the Understanding of Mood and Mood Disorders

Part III: Investigating Mood Disorders

Chapter 9. Anatomical Pathology

Chapter 10. Molecular and Cellular Neurobiology of Severe Mood Disorders

Chapter 11. Brain Imaging

Chapter 12. Review of Mood Disorder Genetics

Chapter 13. Epigenetics of Mood Disorders

Part IV: Somatic Interventions for Mood Disorders

Chapter 14. Tricyclics, Tetracyclics, and Monoamine Oxidase Inhibitors

Chapter 15. Selective Serotonin Reuptake Inhibitors, Serotonin-Norepinephrine Reuptake Inhibitors, and Other Related Antidepressants

Chapter 16. Lithium and Mood Stabilizers

Chapter 17. Use of Antipsychotic Medications in Mood Disorders

Chapter 18. Electroconvulsive Therapy in the Treatment of Mood Disorders

Chapter 19. Transcranial Magnetic Stimulation for Major Depressive Disorder

Chapter 20. Vagus Nerve Stimulation and Deep Brain Stimulation

Chapter 21. Other Antidepressants: Trazadone, Mirtazapine, Bupropion

Chapter 22. Ketamine and Other Investigational Agents

Part V: Psychotherapy of Mood Disorders

Chapter 23. Cognitive and Behavior Therapies for Major Depressive Disorder and Persistent Depressive Disorder

Chapter 24. Interpersonal Psychotherapy for Major Depressive Disorder and Persistent Depressive Disorder

Chapter 25. Psychoanalytic and Psychodynamic Psychotherapy for Depression and Dysthymia

Chapter 26. Psychotherapeutic Approaches to Bipolar Disorder

Chapter 27. Psychotherapy for Depression in Children and Adolescents

Part VI: Integrative Management of Mood Disorders

Chapter 28. Practice Guidelines for Major Depressive Disorder

Chapter 29. Guidelines for Treatment of Bipolar Disorder

Chapter 30. Understanding and Preventing Suicide

Chapter 31. Suicide in Children and Adolescents

Chapter 32. Combination Strategies for the Pharmacological Treatment of Major Depressive Disorder

Chapter 33. Management of Treatment-Resistant Depression

Part VII: Subtypes of Mood Disorders

Chapter 34. Seasonal Affective Disorder and Light Therapy for Mood Disorders

Chapter 35. Atypical Depression, Dysthymia, and Cyclothymia

Chapter 36. Major Depressive Disorder With Psychotic Features

Chapter 37. Pediatric Mood Disorders

Chapter 38. Geriatric Mood Disorders

Part VIII: Additional Perspectives on Mood Disorder

Chapter 39. Depression in Primary Care

Chapter 40. Depression in Medical Illness

Chapter 41. Mood Disorders and Substance Use

Chapter 42. Depression in Women

Chapter 43. Depression Across Cultures: An Ecosocial Approach

Chapter 44. Mood Disorders and Sleep

Chapter 45. Childhood Maltreatment and Mood Disorders

Index