

Part I: Anorectal and Cloacal Malformations

1. Newborn Anorectal Malformations
2. Predictors of Continence
3. Operative Decision Making
4. Operative Techniques
5. Anal Stenosis, Rectal Atresia, and Presacral Mass
6. Cloaca
7. Postoperative Care of a PSARP Incision
8. Rare Cases
9. Anorectal Malformation Myths

Part II: Hirschsprung Disease

10. Diagnosis
11. Pull-Through
12. Total Colonic Hirschsprung Disease
13. Late Diagnosis Hirschsprung Disease
14. Hirschsprung Disease Myths

Part III: Functional Constipation and Fecal Incontinence

15. Bowel Management
16. Evaluation of Constipation and Surgical Adjuncts
17. Malone Appendicostomy (Antegrade) or Enemas (Retrograde) for Colonic Cleaning
18. Malone Complications and Troubleshooting
19. Laxatives
20. Thickening the Stool with Fiber
21. Bacterial Overgrowth
22. Sharing Tissues

23. Functional Constipation and Fecal Incontinence Myths

Part IV: Post-PSARP and Post-HD Pull-Through Problems

24. Problems after PSARP

25. Deciding When to Do a Redo Procedure in ARM

26. Problems after an HD Pull-Through

27. Deciding When to Do a Redo Procedure in HD

Part V: Miscellaneous Colorectal Topics and Techniques

28. Operating Room Setup and Positioning

29. Stomas

30. Ischiorectal Fat Pad

31. Miscellaneous Colorectal Conditions