

1. Introduction
2. "My Child Cannot Pay Attention"
 - A. Absence Seizures
 - B. Adrenal Leukodystrophy
 - C. ESES
 - D. Narcolepsy
 - E. Myotonic Dystrophy
 - F. ADHD with Comorbidities
 - G. Lead Exposure
3. "My Child is Acting Very Strangely"
 - A. NMDA receptor Encephalitis-
 - B. Synthetic Marijuana-
 - C. Post-ictal psychosis
 - D. Wilson's Disease
 - E. Hypoparathyroidism
 - F. ASD
 - G. Schizophrenia
 - H. Anticholinergic vs. serotonin syndrome
4. "My Child Won't Get Out of Bed"
 - A. Systemic Lupus Erythematus
 - B. Astrocytoma with Hypoactive Delirium
 - C. Catatonia in a Patient with Intellectual Disability
 - D. Adjustment Reaction to Multiple Sclerosis
 - E. Major Depressive Disorder in a Patient with Epilepsy
5. "My Child Has Turned Into the Hulk"
 - A. Traumatic Brain Injury
 - B. Mood Dysregulation with Levetiracetam-
 - C. Aggression with steroid treatment
 - D. Oppositional Defiant Disorder as Response to Neurological Disease
6. "My Child is Stuck"
 - A. Tourettes vs. OCD
 - B. PANDAS/ PANS
7. "My Child Can't Sleep"
 - A. Primary Insomnia
 - B. Klein Levin Syndrome
 - C. Anxiety
 - D. Obstructive Sleep Apnea leading to Behavioral Problems
8. "My Child Has Been Making Strange Movements"
 - A. Functional Tremor
 - B. Chorea After Major Stressor (initially thought conversion but found to have SLE)
 - C. Epilepsy and PNES
 - D. Frontal Lobe Seizure
 - E. Extrapyrmidal symptoms from Antipsychotic Withdrawal
9. "My Child Can No Longer..."
 - A. Functional Vision Loss
 - B. Functional Paralysis
 - C. Transient Global Amnesia
 - D. Functional Aphasia