

1 Towards Safer Care for Children, 1

Alf Nicholson, Jamal Hashem

Setting the Scene, 1

Living in a Digital World, 2

Electronic Health Records, 2

Care Closer to Home, 3

Safe Practice for Primary Care Practitioners, 3

Integrating Acute Services for Children, 5

Promoting Diagnostic Excellence in Hospital, 5

Team Discussions, Communication and Medical Handover, 6

Medication safety, 6

Computerised Prescription Order Entry, 6

Pharmacists, 6

Dispensing Medications, 7

Barcoding and Medication Administration, 7

SMART Pumps, 7

Medication Safety in the Community, 7

The Impact, 8

2 Responding to Errors, 11

Ciaran Carthy, Alf Nicholson

The Science of Safer Care for Children, 11

Culture of Recording, 12

Just Culture, 12

Flexibility, 12

A Culture of Learning, 12

Key Strategies in Promoting Safe Care, 12

Leadership, 12

Information Technology, 12

Reducing Harm and Avoiding Errors in Healthcare, 14

The Scale of the Problem, 14

Errors in Primary Care, 14

Key Goals of Patient Safety Efforts, 15

Supporting Trainees, 15

Second Opinions, 15

The Aviation Model, 16

Key Factors in the Aviation Industry, 16

Checklists, 16

Training, 17

Crew Resource Management, 17

The 'Two-Challenge' Rule, 17

The 'Sterile Cockpit' in Aviation, 17

Performance Analysis, 18

Comparisons and Innate Differences, 18

Implications for Healthcare, 18

3 Recognising the Sick Child, 21

Carol Blackburn, Karina Butler

An Accurate History and Examination, 21

History, 21

Examination, 22

Safety Netting for Family Doctors, 22

Communicating Uncertainty, 22

Highlight the Expected Course of the Illness

Over Time, 23

Seeking Further Advice, 23

Heuristics or 'Rules of Thumb', 23

Clinical Decision Tools, 23

Safe System Framework in Hospital, 24
Paediatric Early Warning Scores, 24
The Sepsis 6 Algorithm, 25
Everyone's Fear – Meningitis or Encephalitis, 25
Clinical Symptoms and Signs of Meningitis, 25
Neck Stiffness, 25
Kernig's and Brudzinski's Signs, 26
Bacterial and Viral Meningitis, 26
Tuberculous Meningitis, 26
Viral Encephalitis, 27
Encephalomyelitis, 28
Performing a Lumbar Puncture (LP), 28
4 Managing the Febrile Infant or Child, 32
Alf Nicholson, Karina Butler
Background, 32
Getting Comfortable With Risk, 33
Key Points in the History, 33
Infants Under 3 Months Require a Different Approach, 33
Looking for a Characteristic Rash Is Helpful, 34
Making the Diagnosis in Primary Care, 34
Searching for a Cause – Common Things Are Common, 36
Fever and a Rash, 37
The Return of Invasive Group A Streptococcal (GAS) Illness, 37
Scarlet Fever – Making a Comeback, 38
Erythema Multiforme – Dramatic but Benign, 38
Varicella or Chickenpox – as Common as Ever with Rare Serious Complications in Unvaccinated Populations, 39
Dengue Fever – Common in Some Parts of the World, 40
SARS-CoV-2 Infection, 41
Interpretation of Investigations, 42
Reducing Antibiotic Use, 43
Why We Need to Reduce Antibiotic Use in the Community, 43
For Family Doctors and Those Working in Emergency or Paediatric Departments
Dealing With Children, 44
An Approach to Prolonged Fever, 44
Kawasaki Disease – Expect to See It and Be Ready to Treat It, 45
5 The Newborn and Six-week Examinations, 49
John Murphy
The First Few Days of Life, 50
The First Few Weeks of Life, 56
Later Presentations in Infancy and Pre-School Years, 63
6 Important Rashes to Recognise in Infants and Children, 68
Fiona Browne, Kevin Dunne
Important Rashes to Recognise as a Primary Care Doctor, 69
Erythema Multiforme, 69
Erythema Migrans, 69

Fungal Infections, 69
Redness Around the Eye, 71
Redness Around the Anal Margin, 71
Henoch-Schonlein Purpura, 71
Acute Flare of Atopic Dermatitis, 71
Bullous Rashes of Concern, 72
Stevens-Johnson Syndrome and Toxic Epidermal Necrolysis, 75
Rashes and Systemic Disease, 75
Rash of Systemic Juvenile Idiopathic Arthritis, 75
Erythema Nodosum, 76
Skin Markers of Neurological Conditions, 77
Important Neonatal Rashes, 77
Neonatal Lupus, 77
Subcutaneous Fat Necrosis, 78
Cutaneous Langerhans Cell Histiocytosis, 78
Petechial Rashes in Newborns, 79
Blistering Rashes in Newborns, 80
7 Diagnosing Cancer in Childhood, 85
Michael Capra, Sarah Taaffe
Background, 85
Making the Diagnosis of Childhood Cancer, 85
Increasing Awareness Works, 85
Avoiding Diagnostic Delay, 87
Symptoms Associated with Common Cancers, 88
Acute Lymphoblastic Leukaemia, 88
Brain Tumours, 88
Neuroblastoma, 91
Nephroblastoma, 91
8 The Child With a Limp, 96
Carol Blackburn
Approaching the Child with a Limp, 96
Dealing With Uncertainty, 97
Joint Hypermobility Syndrome, 97
Transient Synovitis, 97
Perthes Disease, 98
Toddler's Fracture, 98
Reactive Arthritis, 98
Important Conditions to Always Consider, 99
Septic Arthritis and Osteomyelitis, 99
Slipped Capital Femoral Epiphysis, 100
Benign and Malignant Bone Tumours, 101
9 Child Protection and Safeguarding Concerns, 104
Sabine Maguire
Recognising Child Abuse, 104
Immediate Actions, 105
Taking the History, 105
Physical Examination, 106
Bruises, 106
Consider Differential Diagnoses, 106
Fractures, 107
Fractures With Higher Risk Profiles, 108
Burns, 108
Abusive Head Trauma, 109
Child Sexual Abuse, 110
Taking the History, 110

Interviewing the Child, 111
The Examination, 111
Laboratory Testing, 112
Lack of Disclosure, 112
Key Issues to be Addressed in
Assessment, 112
Factitious Induced Illness, 112
10 Important Cardiac Diagnoses in Children, 115
Terence Prendiville
Opportunities to Pick Up Congenital Heart Disease, 116
Antenatal Screening, 116
Assessing Murmurs in Early Infancy, 116
Congenital Heart Defects, 117
Murmurs Heard in Apparently Well
Children, 118
Three Symptoms of Concern – Chest Pain,
Syncope and Palpitations, 121
Chest Pain, 121
Syncope, 122
Palpitations in Childhood, 123
Prolonged Fever and the Heart, 125
11 Fits, Faints and Funny Turns, 129
Amre Shahwan
Background, 129
Diagnostic Approach – It Is All About
the History, 129
Clinical Tips to Remember in Common
Seizure Presentations in Children, 130
Febrile Seizures, 130
Self-Limited Epilepsy With Centro-Temporal
Spikes, 130
Childhood Absence Epilepsy (CAE), 131
Juvenile Myoclonic Epilepsy (JME), 132
Infantile Spasms or Infantile Epileptic
Spasms Syndrome (IESS), 132
Nonepileptic Events Which May Mimic
Epileptic Seizures, 133
Syncope and Faints, 133
Benign Sleep Myoclonus in Early
Infancy, 134
Infantile Gratification Disorder, 134
Breath-Holding Spells, 134
Reflex Anoxic Seizures, 134
Night Terrors, 135
Tics, 135
Daydreaming, 135
Migraine, 135
Nonepileptic Attacks or Dissociative
Seizures, 135
12 Presentations of Endocrine Disease, 138
Niamh McGrath
Diabetic Ketoacidosis, 138
Acquired Hypothyroidism, 139
Short Stature and a Delayed Puberty in a Girl, 139
Obesity and Short Stature, 141
Adrenal Insufficiency, 141
Congenital Adrenal Hyperplasia (CAH), 143

13 The Child With Abdominal Pain, 147

Alan Mortell, Billy Bourke

Acute Abdominal Pain, 147

Key Points in the History, 148

Making the Diagnosis of Appendicitis in Primary Care, 148

The Role of Investigations, 149

Operative Treatment, 151

Recurrent Abdominal Pain, 151

Differential Diagnoses to Consider, 152

Inflammatory Bowel Disease, 152

Eosinophilic Oesophagitis, 153

Coeliac Disease, 154

Helicobacter pylori/Peptic Ulcer Disease, 154

14 Pneumonia in Children, 157

Desmond Cox

Background, 157

Avoiding Unnecessary Antibiotics, 157

Length of Antibiotic Treatment, 158

Indications for Investigations, 158

Making the Diagnosis in Primary Care, 158

Infancy, 158

Preschool Age Group, 159

School-Aged Children, 160

Complicated Pneumonia, 161

The Role of Investigations in CCAP, 162

Recurrent Pneumonias, 162

15 Mental Health Issues in Adolescence, 166

Fiona McNicholas

Background, 166

Key Issues, 167

Assessment of Psychological Distress and Mental Health Issues: The If-Me Model of Assessment, 167

Anxiety Issues, 168

Obsessive-Compulsive Disorder, 169

Depression, 169

Self-Harm, 170

Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder, 171

Eating Disorders, 172

Psychosis, 173

Chronic Disabling Fatigue or Chronic

Fatigue Syndrome, 173

16 Neonatal Intensive Care – A Challenging Arena, 178

John Murphy

The Importance of Neonatology, 178

Key Potential Pitfalls, 178

The Unique Features of Newborns, 179

Safe Practice In Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU), 179

Good Communication, 179

Management In The Delivery Suite, 180

Care of the Preterm Infant, 180

Neonatal Encephalopathy and Therapeutic Hypothermia, 181

Recognition of Sepsis, 184

Hypoglycaemia, 184

Severe Hyperbilirubinemia, 185

Retinopathy of Prematurity, 185
Erb's Palsy, 186
Congenital Cytomegalovirus Infection, 187
Failures in Monitoring, 188
Sudden Unexpected Collapse, 188
Line Complications, 188
Episodes of Desaturation, 188
Neonatal Seizures, 189
17 Ordering and Interpreting Tests in Children, 193
Kevin Dunne, Alf Nicholson, Aengus O'Marcaigh, Michael Riordan, Ellen Crushell, Niamh McGrath, Annemarie Broderick, Jonathan Hourihane, James Foley, James O'Byrne
Background, 193
Avoid Unnecessary Tests, 193
Point-of-Care Testing, 194
Urine Collection and Testing for Urinary Tract Infection, 194
Full Blood Count and Coagulation Profile, 194
C-Reactive Protein (CRP) and Procalcitonin, 195
Routine Biochemistry, 197
Blood Glucose, 197
Serum Calcium, 198
Liver Function Tests, 199
Thyroid Function Tests, 200
Conventional Allergy Tests, 201
Electrocardiogram (ECG) Interpretation, 203
Structured Approach to ECG Interpretation, 203
Rate, 203
Rhythm, 203
QRS Axis, 203
P Waves, 203
P-R Interval, 203
QRS Complex, 203
Q-T Interval, 203
T Wave and ST Segment, 204
The Era of Genomic and Precision Medicine, 204
Common Genetic/Genomic Testing Technologies Now Available in Practice, 205
Karyotyping, 205
Chromosomal Microarray Analysis, 206
Fluorescent In Situ Hybridisation (FISH), 207
Next Generation Sequencing (NGS) Tests, 207
Interpreting the Results from Genetic Tests, 208
Precision Medicine – A 'Brave New World', 208
18 Commonly Ordered Radiological Tests and Their Interpretation, 210
Yusra Sheikh
Diagnostic Imaging, 210
Radiology Investigations, 210
Radiographs, 210
Instances Where X-Ray Imaging Benefit Is Questionable, 214
Ultrasound Imaging, 215

Abdominal Ultrasound Imaging, 215
Hip Ultrasound, 216
Neck Ultrasound, 216
Testicular Ultrasound, 216
Soft Tissue Ultrasound, 217
Fluoroscopy, 217
GI Contrast Studies, 217
Micturating Cystourethrogram (MCUG), 217
Computed Tomography, 218
Magnetic Resonance Imaging, 220
19 Twelve Memorable Diagnoses, 221
Alf Nicholson, Aisling Dunne, Neale Kalis, John Murphy
20 Surviving and Thriving Throughout a Career in Healthcare, 235
Sarah Taaffe, Hani Malik, Ciaran O'Boyle
Complexity and Challenge in Modern Healthcare Involving Children, 235
Burnout in Trainees, 236
Burnout in Neonatal and Paediatric Nurses, 236
Coping with Stress, 236
Developing Resilience, 237
Burnout, 237
Preventing Burnout in Healthcare
Professionals, 238
Burnout in Primary Care, 239
Mental Health Issues in Doctors, 239
Index, 243