

SECTION I

Context and perspective

1. History of imprisonment

Bruce A. Arrigo

2. Mental illness management: The shift from community to corrections

Charles L. Scott

3. Formative case law and litigation

Mohamedu F. Jones

4. Human rights

Jamie Fellner and Mohamedu F. Jones

5. The lived experience of incarceration

Barbara Fair and Reena Kapoor

SECTION II

Organization, structure, and function of correctional institutions

6. Diversion programs and alternatives to incarceration

Merrill Rotter, Virginia Barber-Rioja, and Zoe R. Feingold

7. Jails and prisons

Joel A. Dvoskin and Sarah M. Broom

8. Population management

Robert L. Trestman

9. Levels of care

Jeffrey L. Metzner

10. Restrictive housing and disciplinary infractions

Mary Perrien and Maureen L. O'Keefe

11. Funding of correctional health care and its implications

Robert L. Trestman and Jeremiah W. Burkhart

SECTION III

Adapting psychiatric practice to correctional settings

12. Ethics in carceral mental health

Philip J. Candilis and Lindsay M. Poplinski

13. Working inside the walls

Cecilia Vigil and Anthony C. Tamburello

14. Communicating with interdisciplinary professionals

Dean Aufderheide

15. Mental health screening and brief assessments

Daisy Ort, Michael P. Maloney, Joel Dvoskin,

and Jeffrey L. Metzner

16. Interviewing

Anthony C. Tamburello

17. Diagnostic review and revision

Suma Yarrapureddy and Sohrab Zahedi

18. Transition of pharmacology from community to corrections

Badr Ratnakaran and Robert L. Trestman

19. Management of sleep complaints

Bernice S. Elger

20. Evaluation of malingering

James L. Knoll IV and Vikram Kumar

21. Use of telepsychiatry

Ashley J. B. MacLean and Danielle B. Kushner

22. Cultural and structural competence

Stephanie Eng, Harshit Sharma, Luca Pauselli, and Reena Kapoor

23. Community reentry preparation and coordination

Henry A. Dlugacz

SECTION IV

Management of psychiatric emergencies

24. Crisis assessment and management

Reena Kapoor

25. Seclusion, restraint, and involuntary medication

Darren L. Lish

26. Hospitalization

Michael A. Norko, Thomas Kocienda, and Charles Dike

SECTION V

Psychopharmacology

27. Formulary management

Nathaniel P. Morris and Paul R. S. Burton

28. Medication administration and management

Catherine M. Knox

29. Prescribing hypnotic agents and controlled substances

Rusty Reeves and Sadé D. Frazier

30. Misuse of noncontrolled medications

Anthony C. Tamburello

SECTION VI

Disorders and syndromes

31. Diagnostic prevalence and comorbidity

Stuart D. M. Thomas

32. Psychotic disorders

Todd Tomita and Rakesh Lamba

33. Mood disorders

Jayesh Kamath and Brian Wasicek

34. Adjustment disorders

Graham D. Glancy

35. Anxiety disorders

Catherine F. Lewis

36. Posttraumatic stress disorder and trauma-informed care

Nancy Wolff and Catherine F. Lewis

37. Personality disorders

Donald E. McLawhorn and Daniel Jackson

38. Attention deficit disorders

Todd Tomita and Michael K. Champion

39. General medical disorders with psychiatric implications

Jennifer S. Bradford and Erik J. Garcia

40. Psychiatric assessment and management of chronic pain

Robert L. Trestman and Anthony C. Tamburello

SECTION VII

Psychotherapy and other nonpharmacologic treatments

41. Applying the recovery model in prisons and jails

Joel T. Andrade and Debra A. Pinals

42. Individual psychotherapy

James L. Knoll IV and Adam Bernstein

43. Group psychotherapy

Brittany Brizendine and Ruben Valencia

44. Peer support programs

Melissa J. Lavoie and Charlotte M. Schwarz

SECTION VIII

Substance use disorders

45. Substance use in facilities

Jason D. Ourada

46. Detoxification or supervised withdrawal

Rebecca A. Ballard

47. Treatment models for substance use disorders

Ingrid A. Binswanger and Jennifer M. Tippet

48. Dual diagnosis

CJ Appleton and Faye S. Taxman

49. Pharmacotherapy for substance use disorders

James Q. Zhou and Sarah E. Wakeman

50. Transition of substance use disorder treatment to the community

Nadeen Ibrahim and Jaimie P. Meyer

SECTION IX

Self-injury, aggression, and misconduct

51. Suicide risk reduction

Lindsay M. Hayes and Jeffrey L. Metzner

52. Self-injurious behaviors

Sharen Barboza

53. Aggression

Robert L. Trestman

54. Behavior management plans

Henry Schmidt III, André Ivanoff, and William Kuo

SECTION X

Distinct populations

55. Incarcerated women

Catherine F. Lewis

56. Lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender individuals

Elie G. Aoun and Lama Bazzi

57. Developmental disabilities

Barbara E. McDermott and George W. Hebert

58. Traumatic brain injury

William R. McBride and Anthony C. Tamburello

59. Justice-involved youth

Rosa E. Negrón Muñoz

60. Aging incarcerated persons

Nicole Mushero and Lisa C. Barry

61. Incarcerated veterans

James F. DeGroot, Sarah Shelton, John Penezic, and Savannah Shaw

62. Immigrants in detention

Maria Masotta and Rose Kleman

63. Sex offenders

Fabian M. Saleh and Reena Kapoor

64. Clinical and legal implications of gangs

Annette L. Hanson

SECTION XI

Special topics

65. Staff wellness

Elizabeth B. Ford

66. Forensic and legal issues

Erik Roskes and Charles D. Cash

67. Psychological testing

Virginia Barber Rioja, Tasha R. Phillips, and Ira K. Packer

68. Pandemic management

Nathaniel P. Morris

69. Hunger strikes

Haseeb Haroon and Emily A. Keram

70. Responding to sexual abuse of incarcerated persons

Robert W. Dumond and Doris A. Dumond

71. Jail-based competency restoration

Peter Ash and Reema Dedania

72. International perspectives and practice differences

Lindsay D. G. Thomson and Lindsey Gilling

SECTION XII

Education, research, and quality improvement

73. Standards and accreditation for jails, prisons, and juvenile facilities

Joseph V. Penn

74. Systems monitoring and quality improvement

Jeffrey L. Metzner

75. Leadership, training, and educational opportunities

Raymond F. Patterson and Marcus R. Patterson

76. Role of clinical trainees

Charles L. Scott

77. Correctional mental health research

Nancy Wolff

78. The future of correctional psychiatry: Evolving and recommended standards

Jeffrey L. Metzner, Reena Kapoor, Anthony C. Tamburello, and James L. Knoll

Appendix